

CLASS I VIOLATIONS
Failure to respond to an audible alarm sounding at a door by securing the door and then contacting AIRCOM	1st Offense: • Revocation of Badge for 24 hours • Security Retraining 2nd Offense: • Revocation of badge for 72 hours • Security Retraining 3rd Offense: • Permanent revocation of badge
Failure to secure any SIDA door or gate by leaving it open, propped, unsecured or unattended.
Failure to challenge individuals who are not displaying authorized security badges. (The badge challenge should include verifying the picture and expiration date on the badge)
Failure to display badge at all times above the waist on the outermost garment while in SIDA
Failure to be cooperative and immediately present security badge when challenged.
Failure to obey directions of an RTAA Operations Officer, RTAA Police Officer or RTAA Security Specialist
Failure to immediately report any and all security violations or suspicious activity to AIRCOM
Failure to continuously monitor all persons for whom they are providing an escort
Failure, if escorting, to transfer escort authority to another authorized badge holder who acknowledges and assumes responsibility for the escort
CLASS II VIOLATIONS
Escorting an individual who holds an access badge that provides them access to the area in which the escort is being conducted	1st Offense: • Revocation of Badge for 72 hours • Security Retraining 2nd Offense: Permanent revocation of badge
Failure to ensure that any doors or gates they open are securely closed behind them without allowing anyone else to enter (allowing someone to piggyback into a secured area)
Failure to immediately report a lost or stolen badge to AIRCOM
CLASS III VIOLATIONS
Bypassing TSA security checkpoint when traveling on a commercial airline flight	1st Offense: Immediate &amp; Permanent Revocation of Badge
Escorting anyone in a manner that bypasses the TSA checkpoint process when the person being escorted is traveling on a commercial flight
Wilfully tampering with or attempting to bypass any security system, measure or procedure.	